Indianapolis Convention Center Information

Getting around the Indiana Convention Center and Downtown is easy with skywalk connections to more hotel rooms than any other city in the nation. Also linked to a four-story urban shopping mall, surrounded by more than 200 restaurants and clubs, well-known sports venues, and a 10-block state park that features top museums, green space and a convenient canal walk, the Indiana Convention Center has it all within walking distance. Whether you are navigating the Indiana Convention Center or downtown Indianapolis, you will find everything you need right here. Click here to visit the ICC web site.

The competition will take place on the first floor of the convention center in Hall I. Please see the attached floor plan for a detailed map. It is best to enter the convention center from Capitol Street or Maryland Street. There will be directional signs competition Hall I.

Additional Information

1. Please see the attached list of area downtown restaurants for reference during your stay in Indianapolis.
2. Visit Indy is a great resource for things to do and places to see during any downtime you may have.
3. During Friday training, the concession stand in the Indianapolis Convention Center will be closed. However, there are dozens of restaurants nearby and local food trucks will line Georgia Street, just outside the Capitol Street entrance, on Friday, May 5, 2017 from 11:00am -1:30pm.
4. Coaches hospitality will NOT be open Friday, May 5, 2017 during training. There will be limited snacks provided for coaches on Saturday and Sunday during the breakfast, lunch, and dinner hours.
5. Credentials – Photo ID will be required for coaches to pick up credentials. Coaches will NOT be able to pick up credentials for other coaches. In addition, there will be a $50.00 charge to replace lost credentials.

Again, congratulations and we are looking forward to seeing you in Indianapolis!
