

2019 Rutgers Color Games

January 19–20

In this invitational with a twist, athletes are sure to have fun and make new friends! They will be randomly broken up into four different teams, each with a color assigned. Before the meet, athletes will come up with a team name and create their own sign to march out with. Once competition begins, athletes will rotate with their club team as a normal meet. At the end, one color will be named Color Games Champion!
